

Privacy Statement

In order to operate efficiently, to meet our contractual and legal obligations Tribal Group has to collect and use data about people with whom we work. These may include members of the public, current, past and prospective employees, clients and customers, and suppliers. This privacy statement informs you of how we protect your privacy and how any personal information you give us is used. This statement applies only to personal information on www.schoolinspections.co.uk.

Personal Data

We recognise that the lawful and correct treatment of personal data is very important to successful operations and to maintaining our customers', employees' and suppliers' confidence in Tribal Group.

We are aware of our obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 ("Act") and are committed to maintaining high standards of confidentiality and privacy with respect to the processing of personal information.

We intend to collect personal data for the sole purpose of meeting contractual obligations and key performance indicators set by Ofsted. This data is collected from all web users. Web access logs are used for statistical purposes only (eg to measure the use/performance of the site) except in the event of a security breach when they could be used for the purpose of tracing the breach. No information gathered from web logs is given or sold to any third party.

Any personal information that you provide to us will only be used for the purpose stated at the time we request it. This information will not be disclosed to a third party except where authorised by you or as otherwise permitted by the Data Protection Act.

Access to Information – Data Protection and You

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, you can make a formal request for the following information

- clarification that your personal data is being processed by the Tribal
- a description and copy of such personal data
- the reasons why such data is being processed
- details of to whom they are or may be disclosed

Cookies

Cookies are a technology which can be used to provide you with tailored information from a web site; they can facilitate communication and interaction with the site. You may stop or restrict the placement of cookies on your computer by adjusting your web browser preferences, but this may interfere with some of the functionality of the site.

Any data collected through cookies will only be used by Tribal and Ofsted.